SUMMARY

Novorossiysk Army Barracks West is located on the west edge of Novorossiysk, 3.8 kilometers (km) west of the largest mole in the harbor (Figure 1). The installation covers approximately 780 acres and contains 2 administration buildings, 4 administration buildings/barracks, 75 barracks, 8 storage buildings, 24 explosives storage buildings, 6 possible storage buildings, 1 probable receiving/administration building, 3 security buildings, 17 maintenance sheds, 61 support buildings, 23 probable family quarters, and 2 motor parks (Figures 2 and 3).

The TDI indicates that the Novorossiysk Headquarters 73rd Motorized Rifle Division is located at 44-43-48N 037-45-03E which falls within the vicinity of this installation. It is possible that the motorized division could be housed at the Army Barracks; however, this could not be determined on this photography.
